

Friday afternoon tour

The technical tour which was originally scheduled to the NCSR “DEMOKRITOS” research reactor for Friday afternoon, 15 December 2006, will not be possible due to ongoing maintenance activities.

An alternative tour to the National Archaeological Museum of Athens, will be offered and registration for the tour can be made during the conference at the Travel Desk. The cost will be €30 per person (transfer by bus and english speaking guide are included), for a minimum of 30 participants.
