

Exhibition Opportunities during the International Conference on Nuclear Security: Commitments and Actions

The IAEA is organizing the International Conference on Nuclear Security: Commitments and Actions in Vienna, Austria, from 5 to 9 December 2016.

The conference is being convened to discuss the national and international community's experiences and achievements to date in strengthening nuclear security; to enhance understanding of current approaches to nuclear security worldwide; to identify trends; and to provide an inclusive forum at which ministers, policymakers, senior officials and nuclear security experts can formulate and exchange views on future directions and priorities for nuclear security and how these may evolve. More than 1500 participants from IAEA Member States, international organizations and non-governmental organizations are expected to attend the conference.

It is planned to hold an exhibition in conjunction with the conference. In the exhibition IAEA Member States, international organizations, academic institutions, non-governmental organisations and vendors of technology will highlight the latest developments in their areas related to nuclear security. The exhibition will also provide a dedicated demonstration area for use by exhibitors.

A limited amount of space will be available for displays/exhibits during the conference. Interested parties should contact the Scientific Secretariat by e-mail (nuclearsecurity2016@iaea.org) before 31 May 2016.
