

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How to become a conference participant?

- Register online through the conference web site;
- Complete Participation Form (Form A) and send to my official authority (Ministry of Foreign Affairs or National Atomic Energy Authority). If you do not know who these are: please send an email to J.Zellinger@iaea.org

Note: there is no deadline to submit Participation Form A.

What should I do if I wish to present a paper?

Sorry, the deadline has closed. No new papers will be considered.

What should I do if I want to participate and request financial support for my travel?

Sorry, the deadline has closed. No new grant applications will be considered.

If you have applied for a grant, you will be notified of the outcome by the end of July 2017.

Air tickets and hotel accommodation

Please note that we do not provide you with an air ticket to and from the conference. It is up to each participant to organize and pay for his/her own living and travel arrangements.

Please see our recommended list of hotels: <http://www-pub.iaea.org/iaeameetings/2017HotelList.pdf>

If my paper has been accepted for oral presentation

- I will receive an email by 31 July 2017. This email will contain instructions on submitting your full paper and information on documents which we will require nearer to the start of the conference.

Is there a registration fee to be paid?

No registration fee is charged for IAEA conferences and symposia.
