Documentation:

A preliminary programme is available at this web site. It will be updated as necessary. The final programme and the book of extended synopses will be available upon registration.

Proceedings:

The proceedings of the symposium will be published by the IAEA in unedited form as a CD-ROM. All participants will receive a free copy of the CD-ROM.

Visa:

Should you require a visa to enter Croatia please contact the nearest consular representative of Croatia as early as possible.

Should you require assistance please send all necessary information (full name, maiden name, date and place of birth, home address, nationality, name and full address of employer, passport number, length of stay and arrival date) to:

Ms. Zdenka Kuzmic
Rudjer Boskovic Institute, Zagreb
Tel: +385 1 4561138
Fax: +385 1 4680239
Email: zdenka@irb.hr

Accommodation:

A block reservation has been made in the symposium hotel, Neptun Hotel. Please complete the attached hotel reservation form and fax or email it to the address indicated on the form as early as possible but before 10 May 2005. Your reservation will be confirmed directly to you by the hotel.

Additional hotels are also offered at this web site. Please note that for these hotels information and reservations must be made directly with the hotels. Also attached is a map showing the location of all hotels offered.

Lunches:

For the sake of time efficiency it is suggested that participants make use of the restaurant at the symposium hotel, Hotel Neptun. Participants staying at Hotel Neptun may opt to select the half board option, which allows lunch to be taken as part of the half board component.

Information on Dubrovnik:

Information can be obtained through the internet at the following website:
<http://web.tzdubrovnik.hr/>.

Travel information:

Dubrovnik airport is approximately 30 minutes bus ride from the old town of Dubrovnik. This costs approximately 30 kuna (Euro 4.00). Hotel Neptun is then a short bus or taxi (Euro 5.00) ride from the old town.
