
QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

- How to prioritize the sources of financing for application to the project
- What is the more recent statistics for cost overrun compared to 300% of the early days of the nuclear power
- Can there be appendices to the financing Document regarding the national experience in nuclear financing

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

- Is it necessary to have completed all aspects of financing (even waste and decommissioning) for the first project

- What should be in the project proforma compared with what you need for the project

- What are the prospects for the international nuclear funding source – guarantor, cover cost overrun, etc.

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

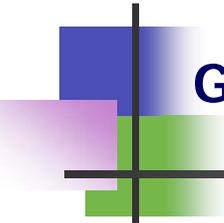

- ❑ Can the return period for the investor be determined ahead of time
- ❑ What is the $/KW for the installation and what does it include
- ❑ The document should clearly identify the financial role of the government in building the first unit
- ❑ There should be the benchmarking of various capabilities in the country in order to assess the risk in various stages

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

- ❑ Do the financing agencies consider emission credit into their assessment of the nuclear and can CDM be used as part of the financing package
- ❑ How is political risk viewed and how does it impact the chances of financing success
- ❑ How do BOO or BOT models approach financing
- ❑ Are the responses of the experts to questions part of the material to be distributed

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

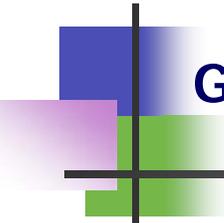

- Do BOO and BOT models become options for developing countries to leverage their limited resources and is it different for the developed countries
- What are some characteristics that lend themselves to developing regionally sponsored nuclear projects
- Could a list of possible sources of financing be put together and the format of material that must be submitted to them be prepared

Group E3

- Improving financing NPP

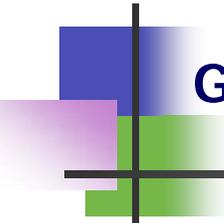

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

Group E3

- Improving financing NPP

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES

Group E3

- Improving financing NPP

QUESTIONS / DIFFICULTIES